Proof of financial security is required to be maintained continuously throughout the registration period. If you do not keep your insurance in force during the entire registration period, your registration will be subject to suspension. If your vehicle is still uninsured after 90 days, your driver license will be suspended. To avoid these penalties you must surrender your registration certificate and plates before your insurance expires. By law your insurance carrier is required to report specific termination information to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. If a motor vehicle liability policy is involved, proof of financial security is required to be maintained continuously throughout the registration period. If you have a lapse in insurance coverage of 90 days or less, the law permits you to avoid a suspension of your registration by the payment of a civil penalty for each day or any portion thereof up to 90 days for which your insurance was not in effect. This civil penalty option applies only once during any 36-month period. The civil penalties are:

-1 to 30 day lapse - $8 per each day of lapse
-31 to 60 day lapse - $240 plus $10 per day for days 31 to 60
-61 to 90 day lapse - $540 plus $12 per day for days 61 to 90.

Liability insurance must be maintained on all registered vehicles. However, you are not required to surrender your registration plates to the department of motor vehicle when your liability insurance terminates. If you operate your motorcycle on the public highways without liability insurance, you will be subject to having your driver's license and registration revoked for a period of one year, a fine imposed by a court and payment of a civil penalty of $750.

If insurance coverage is for a For Hire (FH) vehicle, then proof of financial security is required to be maintained throughout the registration period. If you do not keep your insurance in force continuously during the registration period your registration will be revoked. To avoid this penalty you must surrender your registration certificate and plates before your insurance expires. By law your insurance carrier is required to report specific termination information to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.
